

Accommodations

London Conference has sourced several accommodation options to suit a variety of preferences and budgets. Be aware that there are several large events occurring in London this weekend and rooms/prices are at a premium! Book early as the drop-date for our block of rooms is April 15 - this means if they are not reserved by this date we lose access to booking those rooms at our preferred rate.

Arrangements have been made to host our London Conference guests at the nearby Ivey Spencer Leadership Centre - and a number of rooms for London Conference delegates have also been reserved on a first come, first served basis. A block of rooms at the TownePlace Suites by Marriott has also been set aside for booking by delegates.
