THE LONDON CONFERENCE
(Southwestern Ontario and Algoma)

“THAT ALL MAY BE ONE”

OPPORTUNITY FOR LONDON CONFERENCE

The Nominations Committee is looking for applications for the LEARNING FUND COMMITTEE

MANDATE: This committee sets criteria for and makes decisions about, funding individual learning grant applications, drawing on funds received from the national church. It provides an independent policy setting and decision making body at arm's length from Conference Staff, although the actual processing and payment of grant approvals is taken care of through the Conference Administrative Support Staff.

NUMBER OF POSITIONS OPEN: Three.

MEMBERSHIP OF COMMITTEE: Three persons with Peter Kingsbury as Staff Resource Person.

SKILLS AND GIFTS: Knowledge of Conference operations, management experience; all helpful, but not necessary.

TERM OF OFFICE: Most committee work is done electronically or by telephone, so time and travel commitments are minimal. Term of office is three years.

CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATIONS: See Application Form or website.

TO MAKE AN EXPRESSION OF INTEREST:

If you are interested in the position or know of a suitable candidate for this position write an Expression of Interest including the following information:

- # Information about yourself and your United Church involvement. Maximum of 50 words.
- # Describe why this opportunity interests you and what gifts you bring to it. Maximum of 50 words.
- # Names and phone numbers of 2 references.
- # Contact information for the candidate, including name, email and phone.

* The Nominations Committee will review all applications and keeping in mind the needs of the committee, then name the three candidates to fill the vacancies.

* All applicants will be contacted by the Nominations Committee.
